

ing openers

Trudging slowly towards the creaky door, Dan firmly grasped the torch in his right hand.

Shouting as loud as he could, Mr Broadleday sprinted towards Marnie to try and stop her chasing the sheep.

Skiping down the corridor, Mr Grimshaw screamed good morning to everyone in the unit.

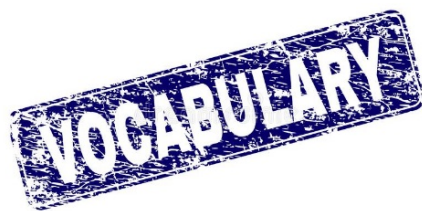

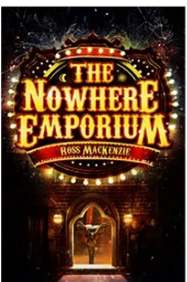

Tuesday 8th September

LC: To explore unfamiliar vocabulary.

These words have been chosen from the Prologue of 'The Nowhere Emporium'.

Let's discuss some of the following chosen words and find out their meaning together.

dawn
abuzz
hearsay
ironmonger
jostled
theories glimpse intricate ripple
emerged soared
enchanted
entranced

Now, let's read the Prologue
from 'The Nowhere Emporium'.

As we are reading, can you identify the vocabulary that we have discussed?

EXAMPLE

Let's complete the semantic map cycle for two of the chosen words together!

Target word	Definition	Synonym	Example sentence
abuzz	Filled with a continuous humming sound.	Lively	The room, which was an unusual place, was abuzz with whispers.
jostled
hearsay

TASK

For your task, complete the semantic map cycle for the words soared and glimpse, just like we did with the EXAMPLE.

Target word	Definition	Synonym	Example sentence
abuzz	Filled with a continuous humming sound.	Lively	The room, which was an unusual place, was abuzz with whispers.
soared
glimpse

Sentence Challenge

Can you write sentences that include:

- ed and ing openers.
- Relative clause.

Remember to use the text to help you understand the meaning of certain words within the context.